

Anna Howard

Chief Executive Officer

Anna joined Murray Mallee Aged Care Group (MMACG) in June 2014 as Chief Executive Officer. Anna has led the organisations expansion of home care services into metropolitan Adelaide, where services are provided predominantly, but not exclusively, to older Italian people. The organisation has also diversified into the provision of supported affordable rental accommodation to people 55 years and over, with a fifty-unit village completed in October 2019. MMACG is also a registered provider of National Disability Services (NDIS) in the Hills Mallee Southern region of South Australia.

Anna has in-depth aged care sector experience which has spanned across Local Government, and the Not-for Profit Non-Government Sector for more than 25 years. Anna has specific experience in the delivery of services to the Culturally and Linguistically Diverse (CALD) Communities and Aboriginal Communities.

Anna currently represents MMACG on the Aged & Community Services Australia (ACSA), Divisional Council, Retirement Living Advisory Committee, and the Community Care Advisory Committee. She is also a past Chairperson of Multicultural Aged Care where she served for more than ten years.

Qualifications held, include a BA in Communication Studies, Master of Business Administrative Management, and is a Justice of the Peace.
